2005 HAVA EXPENDITURES 2007 JAN 29 PM 12: 28

"Free Access" System - $14, 480.75

HAVA requires that each voter who casts a provisional ballot, as of the 2004 Primary Election, is entitled to make use of a "free access" system, to ascertain whether his or her ballot was counted and, if not, the reason for rejection. This was accomplished by establishing a voter registration hotline in New Jersey (877-NJ-VOTER), which not only provides voters with the ability to find out whether their provisional ballot has been counted, but it also allows them to request a voter registration or absentee ballot application and will also connect the voter to either the Board of Election, County Clerk, and in some counties the Superintendent of Elections. The free access system is also available for an absentee voter to ascertain whether his or her ballot was counted, and if rejected, the reason for rejection.

Voter Outreach and Education - $1,210,831.90

The First NJ HAVA voter outreach event in 2005 was held at Perth Amboy High School, which has a diverse, bilingual student population. In addition to a panel discussion on the importance of voting and civic responsibility, the Attorney General announced that the office would be sponsoring a Spoken Work Competition for college and high schools. The theme of the Competition was the "Power of the Vote". The Perth Amboy High School event was videostreamed to other New Jersey high schools as well as colleges.

In continuing the diversification of the State's voter outreach program, the Attorney General held a "Be Powerful, Be Heard" event on May 18th at the National Guard Armory in Lawrence Twp., NJ for military personnel. The event paid tribute to the New Jersey National Guard Units that served in Iraq and provided relevant military absentee ballot information. The event was broadcast on the Internet in conjunction with the Department of Defense to military personnel worldwide. After the event, several public service announcements were filmed with NJ military personnel.

On August 31, 2005, a "Be Powerful, Be Heard" event was held at an adult day care facility in Northfield, New Jersey, which is located in Atlantic County. A number of senior citizens participated. There was a discussion of HAVA voting procedures and a hands-on demonstration of the new HAVA-complaint voting system that the County had recently purchased.

On September 30, 2005, the State held the "The Power of the Vote" Spoken Word Competition in Trenton, New Jersey. Approximately 4,000 students from across New Jersey participated in the event. The event was also broadcast on the Internet. The event included a discussion of HAVA voting procedures and voter registration.

Finally, on October 21, 2005, the State held the "Be Powerful, Be Heard" Latino Voter Educational Outreach Event at Barringer High School in Newark, New Jersey. Over 1,000 high school students participated in this event.

For further detailed information, all 2005 NJ HAVA Voter Outreach Events and Activities are posted in the NJ HAVA "Be Powerful, Be Heard" website. The address is www.njelections.org.

Statewide Voter Registration System (SVRS) - $716.25

This line item represents part of the continuing cost for the State's SVRS implementation.

Staff - Administrative Costs - $4,029.83

As in 2004, HAVA personnel attended several conferences for education and informative purposes related to HAVA.
