I was hoping that my e-mail reply to Tova would end all of this. On another note, Las Veas fell apart mostly due to timing issues. Unfortunately that leaves me, for now, looking for a job. Any ideas?

Tova & Job,

As you know, because the two of you are no longer under contract with the EAC, EAC is not afforded the same protections as if you were still functioning as EAC employees. As such, releasing the document to you would be the same as releasing it to any other member of the public.

Thus, EAC will not be able to release a copy of the proposed final report to you prior to its consideration and adoption by the Commission. The Commission will take up this report at its meeting on Thursday, Dec. 7. I will have a copy available for you immediately following their consideration

- assuming that they do not change the report during their deliberations and voting on Dec. 7. If changes are made, I will have a copy available to you as soon as possible following that meeting.

In the final report, you will see that EAC took the information and work provided by the two of you and developed a report that summarizes that work, provides a definition for use in future study, and adopts parts or all of many of the recommendations made by you and the working group. In addition, you will note that EAC will make the entirety of your interview summaries, case summaries, and book/report summaries available to the public as appendixes to the report.

I know that you are anxious to read the report and that you may have questions that you would like to discuss following the release of the report. Please feel free to contact me with those questions or issues.

Julie,

I understand from Tom Wilkey that you are planning on releasing our report at the public meeting next Thursday, December 7. As we discussed, I respectfully request that Job and I be permitted to review what you are releasing before it is released. I would like us both to be provided with an embargoed copy as soon as possible so we have time to properly review it before Thursday. I can be contacted by email, cell phone at 917-656-7905, or office phone 202-741-6263. I hope to hear from you soon. Thanks.

Tova,

I see no reason why we cannot allow you to have the research for your use. The one caveat to that is that this research was obtained on our Westlaw/Nexis accounts. Therefore, we would have to have an agreement from you that you would not reproduce or distribute those copyrighted materials. I will have one of my law clerks work on getting the information burned to a CD and drafting an agreement concerning the use of these documents.

I will be in touch with you next week to let you know when we will have these documents and agreement available.

Dear Tom and Julie,

Happy New Year. I hope you both enjoyed the holidays.

As you know, I am well aware that the research Job and I produced belongs to the EAC. Nonetheless, I was wondering whether there might be some way I can use just the Nexis material solely for my own further research purposes. Anything I might publish using that underlying data as enhanced by my further research would be in my name and my name only, not that of the EAC. I put a tremendous amount of work into collecting and organizing that data and I would like the opportunity to continue this research on an ongoing basis. It would be a shame if it was not put to some further use.

Is there something we might arrange in this regard? Thanks so much.

Just a reminder that we have a telephone conference for the vote fraud group at 4:00 today. You were going to see if you could talk to Commissioner Davidson before that time so I could know what the possibilities are for serving as her executive assistant. If this is even possible and if the Commission is willing to raise the salaries of the executive assistants, her time table could affect the vote fraud project time table.

Subject Meeting

Julie:

As we just discussed, at this time and in light of the recent inquiry, I think it prudent to postpone our meeting in DC until the first or second week of November in order to:

1. Finalize the Working Group list (I am still waiting to hear from Kay James and Governor Barbour);
2. Finalize the Interview list;
3. Finish the search on existing voter fraud research;
4. Assure participation from the Department of Justice; and,
5. Get everyone on the same page and assure all outside parties that this will not be a radical venture

What do you think and can we get agreement on this with Peggy?

Subject Question

Julie:

I need clarification on something in the project before the conference call at 2:00 today between Peggy, Tova, and me. How much of what we are investigating should involve DOJ's jurisdictional matters under such things as the Voting Rights Act?

Also, did you have a chance to talk to Karen about a second project? I need to know because if there will not be one I will have to get a job with a local law firm until the 2006 elections.

Subje work plan

Hi Karen and Tom,

As we discussed yesterday, attached is a preliminary work plan/division of labor for your review. Please let us know if this is sufficient for the present and if you have any comments or questions.

In terms of hours dedicated to the project, Job and Tova are able to commit to 15-20 hours per week assuming that includes reimbursed periodic travel. Steve can do approximately 2 hours per week. We have tentatively scheduled to meet at your offices in DC, if that is convenient for you, on September 20. We will be able to confirm that within the next day or so.

All of us are very eager to get started on this important work as soon as possible. However, because we also have other work related responsibilities, we are a bit reluctant to do so before having an opportunity to review our contracts. We look forward to receiving them so we can get going right away.

Thanks so much. Speak to you soon.

Tova, Job and Steve

Subject: Re: Kick off activities for the EAC Voting fraud/voter intimidation project

All-

In anticipation of our 45-minute conference call scheduled for Tuesday, September 6 at 4:00 PM, I would ask the three consultants (Steve, Job and Tova) to come prepared to talk about the following:

The major topics and issues which you see as needing immediate attention, definition,delineation,etc.
Rough timelines and timeframes for addressing these major issues and topics
Your major roles and responsibilities and the timelines you envision for meeting your major deliverables

We all realize that this conversation is just a start; I look forward to this beginning and to framing the tasks that lie ahead of us between now and September 30.

Have a wonderful holiday!!

Just one question on the receipt of contract -- it says that the first invoice was for September, but it actually was for October when we really got started, right? Should this be adjusted to say October 1 to October 31?

Thanks.

Julie:

I need clarification on something in the project before the conference call at 2:00 today between Peggy, Tova, and me. How much of what we are investigating should involve DOJ's jurisdictional matters under such things as the Voting Rights Act?

Also, did you have a chance to talk to Karen about a second project? I need to know because if there will not be one I will have to get a job with a local law firm until the 2006 elections.

I'll need to get back to you on this and the definition tomorrow (too many things going on today). In the meantime, I have attached the written status report that was presented to the EAC Standards Board and Board of Advisors, because I can't remember if I ever provided the final version to the two of you. The status report is primarily made up of your preliminary reports, with some Intro information provided and a brief summary of recommendations discussed at the Working Group meeting. This may or may not help the two of you in preparing the final. You can use any of it, or none of it. I am sure that your product will be much better than this quickly pulled together thing. --- Peggy

Subject: Nonpartisan Local Election Official Needed for Voting Fraud/Voter Intimidation Working Group

012529

Tony:

Thanks for being willing to help me identify a qualified, nonpartisan local election official to serve on our Project Working Group for the preliminary research being conducted on voting fraud and voter intimidation.

Background

Section 241 of the Help America Vote Act of 2002 requires EAC to conduct research on election administration issues. Among the issues listed in the statute are the development of:

1. nationwide statistics and methods of identifying, deterring, and investigating voting fraud in elections for Federal office [section 241(b)(6)]; and
2. methods of identifying, deterring, and investigating methods of voter intimidation [section 241(b)(7)].

EAC's Board of Advisors recommended that EAC make research on these topics a high priority.

Preliminary EAC Research

Subsequently, the Commission contracted with two consultants (Tova Wang and Job Serebrov) to:

1. develop a comprehensive description of what constitutes voting fraud and voter intimidation in the context of Federal elections;
2. perform preliminary research on these topics (including Federal and State administrative and case law review), identify related activities of key government agencies and civic and advocacy organizations, and deliver a summary of this research and all source documentation;
3. convene a meeting of a project working group composed of key individuals and representatives of organizations knowledgeable about the topics of voting fraud and voter intimidation, provide the results of the preliminary research to the working group, and record the working group's deliberations; and
4. produce a report to EAC summarizing the findings of the preliminary research effort and working group deliberations that includes recommendations for future EAC action, if any.

The Project Working Group will probably meet only once during this preliminary research effort (probably in late April) to review the consultants research and provide input. Other members of the Working Group are lawyers from advocacy groups and major political parties, two State election officials, and Barry Weinberg, former Deputy Chief of DOJ's Voting Section, Civil Rights Division. Craig Donsanto, Director of DOJ's Election Crimes Branch will serve as a technical advisor to the group.

I really appreciate any help you can offer in identifying a qualified individual to fill the slot on the Working Group that has been reserved for an experienced, nonpartisan local election official.

Good Afternoon Peg,

How about J. R. Perez, Elections Administrator, Guadalupe County or Patricia Benavides, Voting Registration Supervisor, Tarrant County, Texas?

Dear Tony,

Unfortunately both Javier and myself have to decline in being members of the woking group from Texas. It is a bad time of the year where we have so many elections and would not be able to contribute enough time to doing research of any kind. Please keep us in mind for future meetings.

Hi, John:

I apologize that I will not be there this afternoon to introduce you to our consultants for EAC's Voting Fraud/Voter Intimidation project. Tova Wang will be at your office at 2 PM, today. She can call our other consultant, Job Serebrov, and put him on speaker phone. Please let me know if you need anything from me, or want to express any concerns about the project. Thanks.

Tova:

If you an Job can work things out between you, that's good enough for me. We can talk about the meeting with Donsanto when we meet on January 13, unless you really need to discuss it before then.

As Devon's last day was 12/9, I don't think she has access to the EAC email address any longer. I don't think she received the email you sent her after that date. I did further spot checks of the articles she included on the CD. I see several pdf files that came from the Lexis search. She would not have picked up anything that duplicated the newsclips I had saved. I did see one false drop (an article about a union election) and a few articles that I would have filed in a different voting fraud subject folder, but I think she finished all of the work we asked her to do.

I'm just scanning over Devon's collection and do not believe she could have possibly searched all of the terms we gave her. I am aware of tons of articles that were written on many of these topics in 2004 that do not appear in the folder. I think someone is going to have to do it over again from scratch, and I'm thinking about doing at least some of it myself. We should discuss this in detail on Thursday. Thanks.

Yes. It is Feb 16th. I gave all the information to Edgardo. I don't have the time written down. Tova probably still has it. Please ask her about the time for Robin. Neil Bradley's interview is at 4 EST on Feb 21. He is with the Georgia plaintiffs.
