VICE-CHAIR

Senior Fellow, Manhattan Institute
New York City, New York

Abigail Thernstrom is a Senior Fellow at the Manhattan Institute in New York, a member of the Massachusetts State Board of Education, and a commissioner on the United States Commission on Civil Rights. She received her Ph.D. from the Department of Government, Harvard University, in 1975.

Thernstrom and her husband, Harvard historian Stephan Thernstrom, are the co-authors of America in Black and White: One Nation, Indivisible (Simon & Schuster), which the New York Times Book Review, in its annual end-of-the-year issue, named as one of the notable books of 1997. They are currently working on a new book: Getting the Answers Right: The Racial Gap in Academic Achievement and How to Close It.

They are also the editors of a forthcoming volume, Beyond the Color Line: New Perspectives on Race and Ethnicity, and their lengthy review of William G. Bowen and Derek Bok's much-noticed book, The Shape of the River, appeared in the June 1999 issue of the UCLA Law Review.

Abigail Thernstrom's 1987 work, Whose Votes Count? Affirmative Action and Minority Voting Rights (Harvard University Press) won four awards, including the American Bar Association's Certificate of Merit, and the Anisfield-Wolf prize for the best book on race and ethnicity. It was named the best policy studies book of that year by the Policy Studies Organization (an affiliate of the American Political Science Association), and won the Benchmark Book Award from the Center for Judicial Studies.

Her frequent media appearances have included Fox News Sunday, Good Morning America, the Jim Lehrer News Hour, Both Sides with Jesse Jackson, and Black Entertainment Television. For some years, she was a stringer for The Economist, and continues to write frequently for a variety of journals and newspapers, including, Commentary, The Wall Street Journal, The New York Times, The Washington Post, and The Public Interest.

She serves on several boards: the Center for Equal Opportunity, and the Institute for Justice, among others. From 1992 to 1997 she was a member of the Aspen Institute's Domestic Strategy Group.

President Clinton chose her as one of three authors to participate in his first "town meeting" on race in Akron, Ohio, on December 3, 1997, and she was part of a small group that met with the President again in the Oval Office on December 19th.

Professor of Law
B.A., cum laude, Kalamazoo College, 1980
J.D., cum laude, Harvard Law School, 1990

One of the nation's leading authorities on Election Law and Campaign Finance, Professor Smith returns to Capital after five years in Washington, D.C., where he served as Commissioner, Vice Chairman, and Chairman of the Federal Election Commission (FEC). Nominated by President Clinton in February of 2000 to fill a Republican-designated seat on the Commission, Professor Smith was confirmed by the Senate in May of 2000 and took his seat the following month. Prior to his nomination, Smith had become a fixture in the national discussion on campaign finance, and was called "the most sought after witness" when Congress considered campaign finance issues. His writings have appeared in such academic journals as the Yale Law Journal, Georgetown Law Journal, and Pennsylvania Law Review, and in popular publications such as the Wall Street Journal, USA Today, and National Review. In 2001, Princeton University Press published his book, "Unfree Speech: The Folly of Campaign Finance Reform," which was praised by syndicated columnist George Will as "the year's most important book on governance." The Times of London called it "a much needed dose of realism which has relevance far beyond America," and Publishers Weekly described it as "a marvelous contrarian view: moderate in tone, elegant in language, clever in argument." Named FEC Chairman in January 2004, Professor Smith oversaw implementation of the McCain-Feingold campaign finance bill, and successfully fought to increase due process protections for defendants in FEC enforcement actions. Professor Smith has spoken at over 30 of the nation's law schools, including Harvard, Yale, Columbia, Stanford, Chicago, Michigan, and NYU. His many media credits include national appearances on ABC, NBC, PBS, Fox, CNBC, MSNBC, C-Span, and Bloomberg Media, including such programs as Hardball with Chris Matthews, and the O'Reilly Factor. He has also appeared on numerous local and national radio programs, and made television appearances in Great Britain, Japan, and Canada.

Prior to joining Capital's faculty in 1993, he served as United States Vice Consul in Ecuador, and worked as an attorney for the law firm of Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease. He has also taught law at George Mason University. Professor Smith was the first Director of Capital's summer study abroad program in Greece, and from 1994 to 2000 served as co-Director of Capital's National Moot Court team with Professor Jeffrey Ferriell, winning six regional championships in the National Appellate Advocacy Competition or National Moot Court Competition. His teaching has included Election Law, Civil Procedure, Law & Economics, Jurisprudence, and Administrative Law.

Chairman Paul DeGregorio
Commissioner Donetta L. Davidson
Commissioner Gracia M. Hillman
United States Election Assistance Commission
1225 New York Avenue N.W., Suite - 1100
Washington, DC 20005
Fax: (202) 566-3127

Dear Commissioners:

Last month, People For the American Way launched a petition drive asking the Election Assistance Commission to release a report written months ago that reportedly pokes holes in the widespread myth that voter fraud is rampant in America. Allegations of voter fraud have led to restrictive voting requirements that we know disenfranchise eligible voters.

EAC Chairman Paul S. DeGregorio denied our request to make the taxpayer-funded findings available to the public in time for the mid-term elections earlier this month.

Over 12,000 People For the American Way members and activists across the country have signed our petition asking that the report be made available to the public. Any information that can help make our elections fair and open should be made available to the public. We need to solve the problems in our electoral system, not create new and unnecessary barriers to voting.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Elliot Mincberg".

Elliot Mincberg
Legal Director, People For the American Way

Dear EAC Commissioners,

The report commissioned by the EAC and drafted by voting experts must be released to the public - with public hearings to follow.

In light of the disenfranchising legislation that is being passed to fix a problem that the report's researchers apparently found insignificant, it is unconscionable and undemocratic for you to keep these findings from the public.
