

Suggested introductory remarks for:

Lori Edwards
Polk County Supervisor of Elections

- Lori was elected Supervisor of Elections in November 2000.
- Before becoming Supervisor of Elections, Lori represented eastern Polk County in the Florida Legislature for eight years.
- Lori began her career in radio as a radio news director and then left radio to become a communication consultant.
- She earned her bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Warner Southern College (now Warner University) in Lake Wales.