Matthew V. Masterson

Deputy Director/Attorney Advisor Testing and Certification Program

Mr. Masterson currently serves as the Deputy Director for the EAC's Testing and Certification Program. In this role Mr. Masterson's primary responsibility is the creation of the next iteration of the Voluntary Voting System Guidelines (VVSG). Mr. Masterson worked with the EAC's Technical Guidelines Development Committee (TGDC) and the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) in the creation of the TGDC's recommended Voluntary Voting System Guidelines. Currently Mr. Masterson is responsible for the creation of the EAC's draft of the next iteration of the VVSG and the management of the EAC's VVSG review process. In addition to these responsibilities Mr. Masterson manages the day to day business of the EAC's laboratory accreditation program including the creation of the EAC's Voting System Test Laboratory Program Manual. Prior to his current position Mr. Masterson joined the EAC in 2006 as a Special Assistant/Counsel to Chairman Paul DeGregorio.

Mr. Masterson was admitted to practice law in the State of Ohio in November of 2006. Mr. Masterson graduated from The University of Dayton School of Law in May 2006. At the University of Dayton Mr. Masterson served as the Chief Justice of the Moot Court program and Student Bar Association Vice-President. Prior to law school Mr. Masterson received BS and BA degrees from Miami University in Oxford, OH.
