

U.S. ELECTION ASSISTANCE COMMISSION (EAC) 2026 Election Administration and Voting Survey (EAVS)

Improving the United States' election systems relies in part on having accurate data about the way Americans cast their ballots. In 2002, Congress established the U.S. Election Assistance Commission (EAC) to collect and disseminate this information to policymakers, advocates, scholars, journalists, and the public. Since 2004, the EAC has conducted a survey every two years to gather this data.

We are pleased to present the 2026 Election Administration and Voting Survey (EAVS), and we ask for your help in making it the most complete and accurate survey yet.

This survey requests information about ballots cast, voter registration, overseas and military voting, mail voting, Election Day activities, voting technology, and other key topics.

The EAC recognizes that answering this survey adds significant work for state and local election officials, and we have worked to minimize that burden as much as possible.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation. We look forward to supporting you and answering any questions you might have.

Note: The EAC is also required by the National Voter Registration Act (NVRA) to collect information from states about the impact of the NVRA on the administration of federal elections. The EAC is required to use this information in a report to Congress and make recommendations for the improvement of federal and state procedures, forms, and other NVRA-related matters. States that answer all voter registration-related questions in this survey on time will meet their NVRA reporting requirements under 52 U.S.C. § 20508 and EAC regulations.

The Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act (UOCAVA) section serves as the EAC's standard format for states to report information about voting by military and overseas civilians, as required by 52 U.S.C. § 20302. States that complete and submit this section on time will meet their UOCAVA reporting requirement under 52 U.S.C § 20302(c).

Instructions for Completing the 2026 Election Administration and Voting Survey

By filling out this survey, you are helping your office meet federal requirements and providing valuable data to help improve how elections are run nationwide.

Please read these instructions before you begin:

- Who Should Report Data?
 - Report all data at the local jurisdiction level (e.g., your county or city).
 - If your state or territory prefers, the state-level election office can fill out some or all of the survey for local offices under its authority.
- Do not Leave Anything Blank
 - Please provide an answer to every question. If you do not have data or are not sure, use one of these responses:
 - “Does not apply” – if your office does not have the relevant policy or procedure in effect.
 - “Data not available” – if you do not track or cannot provide the requested data.
 - “Other” – if you have additional information that does not fit the listed categories.
- Pre-populated Answers
 - Some questions may already have answers filled in based on your state’s Policy Survey.
 - If you would like a copy of your state’s Policy Survey for reference, please email research@eac.gov.
- Use Comment Boxes for Clarity
 - Use comment boxes to provide explanations, context, or details about your data. Comments help the EAC accurately analyze and present your information. Examples of when to provide comments include:
 - Why a number is unusually high or low
 - If you combined data in categories
 - If you had trouble tracking a specific data point
- Comments Are Public
 - All comments will be made public when survey data is released and may be published in EAC reports.
 - Do not include sensitive or personally identifiable information (PII) in your comments.

How to Count Transactions:

- If your state has a registration deadline, your count should begin the day after the deadline for the November 2024 general election. Voter Registration List Maintenance: Questions A11–A14

These questions ask about efforts made to keep voter registration up-to-date by removing people who were no longer eligible to vote between the close of registration for the November 2024 general election and the close of registration for the November 2026 general election.

Definitions:

- Confirmation Notice - For EAVS, a confirmation notice is a letter, postcard, or other printed document that is mailed to a voter to confirm changes to their voter registration. It may ask the voter to verify the accuracy of the information. Some notices are required by NVRA Section 8(d)(1)(B) and Section 8(d)(2). States exempt from the NVRA (Wisconsin, Minnesota, New Hampshire, Idaho, Wyoming, North Dakota, and all territories) may still send these notices for other reasons, and some states may have additional notification programs required by state law.

Some states call these "removal notices," but you should only report them if they meet the definition above.

Examples of when confirmation notices may be sent:

- When it is believed that the voter may have moved out of the jurisdiction.
- The voter has not voted in a federal election for several cycles.
- When it is believed that the voter may have a criminal conviction that makes them ineligible under state law.
- Important: Opt-out mailers for voters automatically registered through an automatic registration program do not count as confirmation notices for EAVS.

A11. Total Confirmation Notices Sent to Voters

To answer this question: Enter the total number of confirmation notices sent to voters between the close of registration for the November 2024 general election and the close of registration for the November 2026 general election.

Additional instructions:

- “Does not apply” is a valid response. For example, if your state is NVRA-exempt (Wisconsin, Minnesota, New Hampshire, Idaho, Wyoming, North Dakota, and all territories) AND does not use a process equivalent to confirmation notices, enter “Does not apply” for those categories.
- “Data not available” is a valid response. For example, if your state or jurisdiction does not track data for any of the categories below, enter “Data not available” for those categories.
- Use the “Other” categories for notices that cannot be placed into any of the other categories.
- Balance your numbers: The sum of items A11b–A11i should equal A11a.

Definitions: Types of UOCAVA Voters

States define UOCAVA status differently, so use your state’s rules when reporting items in Section B.

UOCAVA voters typically fall into two main categories:

- Uniformed Services voters (domestic or foreign)
 - A member of the Uniformed Services
 - A U.S. Merchant Marine on active duty
 - An eligible spouse or dependent of a member of the Uniformed Services
 - Important: Spouses and dependents of military members or Merchant Marine members count as Uniformed Services voters—not as civilian overseas voters.
- Non-military/civilian overseas voter
 - A U.S. citizen living outside the U.S. who intends to return
 - A U.S. citizen living outside of the U.S. with no certain return date
 - A U.S. citizen who has never lived in the United States

Note: Voters with disabilities, emergency workers, voters displaced by natural disasters, or others who are eligible to receive remote ballots, if allowable by state law (e.g., via fax, email, or online portals), are not UOCAVA voters and should not be counted in Section B.

These questions ask about Federal Post Card Applications (FPCAs). The FPCA is a federal form that allows military members, their families, and U.S. citizens living overseas to register to vote and request an absentee ballot for federal elections.

If your state allows one FPCA to stay valid for multiple elections, include all voters who submitted an FPCA by the close of registration for the November 2026 general election, and those who still have UOCAVA status from a previous request.

The totals you enter in this section should also be included in the total number of UOCAVA voters reported in B1a.

Do not include Federal Write-In Absentee Ballots (FWABs) in these questions.

B2. Federal Post Card Applications Received

To answer this question: Enter the total number of FPCAs received by your office by the close of registration for the November 2026 general election.

Definitions

- Mail Voting: Any ballot sent to a voter by mail (or sometimes picked up at an election office, accessed through a web portal, or sent by fax with a mail ballot return envelope) and returned by mail, in a drop box, or in person at a voting location or election office in a mail ballot envelope. Note: EAVS uses “mail voting” instead of “absentee voting” because most states no longer require voters to be away from home to vote by mail.
- Drop Box: A secure container where voters can return their completed mail ballots. Drop boxes can be staffed or unstaffed, but election officials are always responsible for managing them. This can include secure containers at vote centers or voting locations if the election office tracks them as drop boxes. Some states use different names, such as “place of deposit” or “secure ballot intake station.”
- Cured Ballot: The process for fixing problems with a mail ballot so it can be counted. If a ballot is rejected due to an error – such as a missing or mismatched signature – some states allow election offices to notify the voter and provide an opportunity to correct it. For EAVS, if the voter resolves the issue and the ballot is counted, it is considered a “cured ballot.”

Instructions for States with All-Mail Elections

If your office automatically mails a ballot to every registered voter, report all mail ballots your office sent to voters in Section C—except those sent to UOCAVA voters (UOCAVA ballots are reported in Section B).

- For transmitted ballots: Count all ballots you sent to voters, including those sent by email, fax, or other remote methods, if permitted in your state (such as for voters with disabilities or emergency workers).
- For returned ballots: Count all mail ballots that were returned to your office in a sealed envelope, regardless of how they were returned (drop box, mail, fax, or other methods).
- Permanent mail voters: For question C2, enter “Does not apply.”

Section D: In-Person Voting Operations

Why We Ask for This Information

The goal of this section is to understand in-person voting in your jurisdiction for the November 2026 general election. It asks for details about precincts, voting locations, poll workers, and related activities. Completing Section D meets a key Help America Vote Act (HAVA) requirement to give Congress and the EAC accurate nationwide data on election administration. Your responses help identify trends, challenges, and best practices for in-person voting, contributing to a comprehensive national understanding of in-person voting in federal elections.

Checklist: What You Will Need to Complete Section D

- ☐ Precincts and Voting Location Totals
 - Total number of voting precincts in your jurisdiction
 - Total number of physical voting locations (including vote centers)
 - Those used for Election Day voting
 - Those used for early voting
- ☐ Poll Worker Totals
 - Total number of poll workers
 - Worked on Election Day
 - Worked during early voting
 - By age group
 - New poll workers
- ☐ Ease or difficulty of recruiting poll workers
- ☐ Comments & Explanations
 - Notes on missing data, special circumstances, or additional context (e.g., if certain locations or poll worker roles cannot be tracked separately)

Definitions

- Precinct: A geographic area where voters are assigned based on their address. This is an administrative division of a county or city for voting purposes. Your jurisdiction might call it a “ward” or “voting district.” If your office combines smaller precincts into larger ones for reporting results, report the number of combined precincts for the November 2026 general election.
- Voting location: Also known as a “polling place”. This is a physical place where people can cast a ballot directly into a ballot box or tabulator. This includes vote centers, mobile voting sites, and other locations used for early voting or on Election Day.

- Poll workers: People who assist voters on Election Day or during in-person early voting. They may also be called election judges, inspectors, booth workers, wardens, or commissioners. Their duties include checking voter ID, helping voters sign the poll book, issuing ballots, setting up voting machines, and other tasks required by state law. They do not include observers, regular office staff who didn't serve as poll workers, or staff who processed ballots after voting.
- Early voting: Voting that occurs in person before Election Day at a voting location or election office where election staff are available to assist. Some states use different names, such as "in-person absentee voting" or "advance voting".

Instructions for States With All-Mail Elections

If your state or jurisdiction primarily conducts all-mail elections, please report any in-person voting options for voters – like vote centers or voting at election offices – and any temporary poll workers (not permanent staff) who helped with in-person services such as ballot drop-off or voter assistance. Enter "Does Not Apply" when appropriate.

- Precincts: Precincts are the administrative divisions used for assigning ballots and reporting vote totals (not physical locations). Even if you do not have in-person voting locations, please still report the number of precincts your jurisdiction used in the November 2026 general election.
- Voting locations: Count vote centers and election offices as voting locations only if voters can cast a ballot at that location and have it directly placed into a ballot box or tabulator for counting.
- Poll workers: Do not include regular office staff who assisted voters. Only report temporary election workers who are hired specifically to help voters cast a ballot.

Precincts and Voting Locations: Questions D1–D4

Section E: Provisional Ballots Cast

Why We Ask for This Information

The Help America Vote Act (HAVA) requires state to offer provisional ballots in federal elections when their names do not appear on the registration list or their eligibility is challenged. Provisional ballots must also be provided if a judge extends polling hours. Some states have additional reasons for issuing provisional ballots, beyond the reasons outlined in HAVA.

Five states (Idaho, Minnesota, New Hampshire, Wisconsin, and Wyoming) and all territories are exempt from HAVA's provisional ballot requirements because these states allowed Same Day Registration when HAVA was enacted. North Dakota is also exempt because it does not require citizens to register to vote. These states may still choose to use provisional ballots.

The goal of this section is to better understand how many voters needed to use a provisional ballot in your jurisdiction, why these ballots were issued, and what happened to them (counted, partially counted, or rejected). Completing Section E meets a key HAVA requirement to provide Congress and the EAC with accurate national data to improve federal elections.

Checklist: What You Will Need to Complete Section E

- ☐ Total provisional ballots cast:
 - The number of voters who used a provisional ballot in the November 2026 general election.
 - Outcomes, such as how many provisional ballots were counted in full, counted in part, or rejected for counting.
- ☐ Reasons that provisional ballots were issued:
 - For example:
 - Voter not on the registration list
 - Missing ID
 - Eligibility challenges
 - Same-day registration
 - Other reasons
- ☐ Reasons that provisional ballots were rejected:
 - For example:
 - Voter not registered
 - Voted in the wrong precinct

- Missing signature
 - Other reasons
- ☐ Comments or notes:
- Any special circumstances, missing data, or additional context that may help explain your numbers.
