Re: The Help America Vote Act – Replacement of Punch Card and Lever Voting Machines

Dear Mr. Kulenguski:

As Alabama's chief elections officer, I am happy to report to you that our state will not seek a waiver pursuant to Section 102 (a) (3) (B) of the Help America Vote Act. Recent conversions in a few remaining counties eliminated the use of lever voting machines in Federal and State elections conducted across the State of Alabama.

We are pleased with the recent advancement in election reform and voting achievements resulting from Alabama's adoption and implementation of the Help America Vote Act and related election reform legislation. Please contact me if I or any member of my staff might be of assistance to you in the future.

Sincerely,

Nancy L. Worley
Secretary of State
