Consolidated Report on HAVA Title I, Section 101 Funds
Period January 1, 2004 through December 31, 2004
State of Colorado

For the period January 1, 2004 through December 31, 2004, the Department expended $915,572 of the federal HAVA funds on activities described for the use of funds in Section 101. The funds were expended as follows.

- (A) Complying with the requirements under title III: $210,711
Prior to the receipt of Title II funds, the state expended 101 funds for project oversight, development of an RFP and contract for the statewide voter registration system required under Title II.
- (B) Improving the administration of elections for Federal Office: $12,628
Funds were expended to provide voter kits, signs and printed materials to county offices that administer elections.
- (C) Educating voters concerning voting procedures, voting rights, and voting technology: $27,310
Expenditures in this category were primarily for posters and printed materials that educated voters and potential voters about their rights.
- (D) Training election officials, poll workers, and election volunteers: $31,362
The department conducted the first of a two-part intensive training session for County Clerks and their staff. Upon completion of the second part, those trained will become Certified Election Officials (certified by the Secretary of State). The Secretary of State requires all County Clerks to attend this training.
- (E) Administrative costs to oversee the state's HAVA program, manage funds, implement the State Plan, and handle HAVA complaints: $633,561
Expenditures under this category included costs of Personnel, leased space, travel, supplies and non-capitalized equipment, dues, registration fees, postage, and general operating expenses for the HAVA Unit. Much of the travel expenses were incurred for members of the State Planning Steering and Sub-committees as described in the State Plan.
