

Michael B. Winn, CERA,CCPAP

Director of Elections

Travis County Clerk

Austin, TX

Michael B. Winn has been in the Travis County Clerk's office since 1998. Michael currently serves as Director of Elections at the Travis County Clerk's Office (Austin). He is responsible for and manages an office that oversees elections for more than 145 jurisdictions. Michael brings with him more than 20 years of experience in Elections and community service. He has a strong background in public relations, team development and project management. Michael has been a member of IACREOT since 2002; he has served in a number of Key positions within the organization and currently serves as this year's President. Michael continues his pursuit of understanding the process of managing and conducting elections as he has completed educational requirements and has attained certifications from national professional organizations including The Election Center. Michael lives in Round Rock, Texas with his wife, Elizabeth Hanshaw Winn, and has two children, Bryanna and Kaleb.