

Noah Praetz

As Deputy Director of Election for Cook County Illinois, Noah Praetz helps manage one of the largest election authorities in the United States and seeks innovate, cost effective waves of making the administration of elections more effective and efficient.

Noah Praetz is an attorney who helps ensure that the office is in compliance with federal, state and local laws. Noah managed the 25 million dollar transition from Punch Cards to a blended system of optical scan and touchscreen voting. In that effort he helped developed and manage innovative and effective methods for preparing and testing election equipment before elections and managing the auditing of results afterwards.