
The Elijah Cummings Amendments (ECA) to the No FEAR Act require the head of the Federal agency to post final agency actions that result in a finding of discrimination on the Commission’s public website within 90 days of the date the decision becomes final. The notice must state that a finding of discrimination has been made, must be placed in a clear and prominent location linked directly from home page of the agency’s website and must remain posted not less than one year.