During this rating period, the DC Board of Elections (DCBOE) used HAVA Election funds to renew licenses for electronic Poll Books used at Early Voting centers and on Election Day. DCBOE also used the HAVA grant funds to acquire twenty-five (25) Ballot on Demand Printer Systems (BOD). These additional BODs allowed for the expansion from polling places to vote center operations during the 2022 election cycle. The DCBOE continued the use of HAVA funds to provide for election official training. A portion of the HAVA fund was also used during the 2022 election cycle to pay election workers. It was crucial to recruit and retain a diverse set of election workers to help DCBOE run the 2022 Primary and General elections. DCBOE determined that its inventory of ePollpads were outdated and needed to be replaced to accommodate the increased number of District's voters. HAVA funds were used to purchase upgraded ePollpads and curbside printers. In order to improve the efficiency and transparency of processing petitions, DCBOE used a portion of the HAVA funds to purchase a proprietary Petitions Management System with software that included Individual Record Lookup Analysis, Individual Signature Analysis, IBML Image Indices Scanner, workstation, annual license, and maintenance. The DCBOE used HAVA funds to provide on-site interpreters at select polling places as well. DCBOE also used HAVA funds to procure the Ballotrax system, the mail ballot locator and notification system. All registered voters in the District of Columbia were mailed a ballot, and voters were able to track their ballot from creation to United States Postal Service delivery to the voter and to the BOE.

DCBOE plans to track eligible activities from our local operating budget to meet the state match obligation. DCBOE expanded its absentee voting program to a full blown vote by mail program, wherein, the DCBOE contracted with a mail house to mail a ballot to every registered voter in the District of Columbia. Voters could return their ballot by mail in a postage prepaid envelope or put it in a drop box. All registered voters in the District of Columbia were mailed a ballot during the 2022 election cycle and voters were able to track their ballot from creation to United States Postal Service delivery to the voter and to the DCBOE.
